

Community Engagement Internship

Fall, 2016

Want to make a positive difference this election year? Concerned about whether your generation has a voice?

APPLY NOW for the American Democracy Project Community Engagement Internship.

The American Democracy Project, a nonpartisan civic engagement committee on campus, invites proactive students to apply for a 3 credit internship experience. Interns will:

- ⇒ create and promote multiple educational election-related events for the university community,
- ⇒ register students to vote,
- ⇒ manage a weekly public opinion poll of UWO students,
- ⇒ complete academic content on civic engagement, leadership, and political participation.

DEVELOP YOUR SKILLS IN:

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Register voters and get out the vote.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Design and carry out a plan to increase student engagement in the Fall election.

LEADERSHIP

Collaborate and partner with students, faculty, and campus staff.

EVENT PLANNING AND MEDIA RELATIONS

Schedule and organize voter registration and engagement events.

All Majors Encouraged to Apply!

Course content will be delivered by faculty in Communication Studies, Criminal Justice, Political Science, and Sociology.
